

Resignation of General Manager

13 November 2018

Goldenfields Water County Council advises that General Manager, Darryl Hancock has tendered his resignation from his position. Chairperson, Dennis Palmer said, "On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Darryl for his tenure and wish him all the best for the future." Mr Hancock's resignation will become effective on 30 November 2018, however he will take leave for the remainder of his tenure.

Corporate Services Manager, Ian Graham has been appointed Acting General Manager until 30 November 2018 until further arrangements for an Interim General Manager can be finalised and a recruitment process for a permanent General Manager can be undertaken.
