

THE WEST WYALONG WATER RELIABILITY PROJECT IS JOINTLY FUNDED BY THE AUSTRALIAN & NSW GOVERNMENTS, DELIVERED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH GOLDENFIELDS WATER COUNTY COUNCIL & BLAND SHIRE COUNCIL

WEST WYALONG WATER RELIABILITY PROJECT

ABOUT THE PROJECT

A $12.5 million water infrastructure project to reinforce water security in the Bland Shire.

The project will include:

- Construction of a new concrete standpipe reservoir
- A new pump station
- A new supply main and renewed reticulation main

BENEFITS

- Increased water pressure for Wyalong and West Wyalong customers
- Increased security of water supply
- Allow for future expansion
- Improved efficiency

TIMELINE

October 2022

- Killard Infrastructure commence pipeline construction
- Quay Civil commence reservoir construction

May 2023

- Goldenfields Water commence pump station construction
- Quay Civil complete reservoir construction

July 2023

- Goldenfields Water complete pump station construction

August 2023

- Killard Infrastructure complete pipeline construction
- Total project to be completed

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROJECT, CONTACT GOLDENFIELDS WATER

02 6977 3200

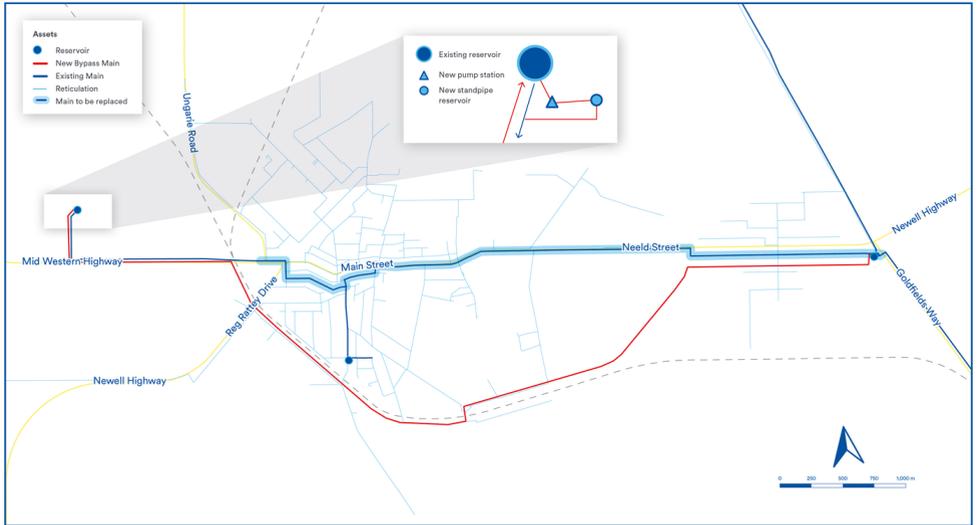

www.gwcc.nsw.gov.au

office@gwcc.nsw.gov.au

West Wyalong Water Reliability Project

Pictured above: Member for Cootamundra, The Hon. Ms Steph Cooke MP joined by Goldenfields Water General Manager Aaron Drenovski, Bland Shire Council Mayor Brian Monaghan, General Manager Grant Baker and Councillors Liz McGlynn and Tony Lord alongside students from West Wyalong Public School and St Mary's War Memorial School at the official 'Sod Turn Event' on Friday 14th October 2022.